

Toronto Wrestling Development Centre

Where is it? Physical Education Building
City Adult Learning Centre
1 Danforth Ave.,
Toronto, Ontario

What is it? An 80' x 50' fully matted wrestling room with three full mat surfaces, the Centre is a training site for all current OAWA members in the Greater Toronto area and all wrestlers in Toronto wanting to add to their current training. The Centre is sponsored by the Ontario Amateur Wrestling Association and is a resource for all members in the Toronto area.

All participants are reminded that you do not have to be affiliated with a particular club to participate in Training Sessions at the Centre. All sessions are open to all athletes, but athletes are advised to select the training level appropriate for them, and to consult their coach when planning their training. All Coaches are encouraged to attend sessions at the Centre to work with their athletes, other athletes, and other coaches involved at the Centre.

Athletes' personal coaches must be aware they are training at the Centre.

Who is involved? Here are some of the current coaches working at the Centre (times/sessions vary):

Eamonn Dorgan	Head Coach, York University 2006 World Championships Team Member (Ireland). 2007 Commonwealth Championships Champion.
Reza Khanpanah	Iranian National Champion 1989- 1992
Kimin Kim	Assistant Coach, Team Impact W.C. 2009 Canada Games Ontario Coaching Staff member
Dave Mair	Assistant Coach, Guelph W.C. Assistant Coach, 2009 World Championships, Women's Team.
Michael Quinsey	Head Coach, University of Toronto
Stan Tzogas	Head Coach, Team Impact W.C. 2002 Commonwealth Games Head Coach (Canada) Assistant Coach, 2009 World Championships, Men's Team.

Training Times: Times vary throughout the year. Check the latest listing on the OAWA website (www.oawa.ca).

Cost: Free for existing members of the OAWA (membership forms will be available, all OAWA memberships will be verified).

Coaches: All Coaches must be OAWA members. All Toronto area coaches are invited to participate in both regular training sessions and special events (Coaching workshops, etc.) sponsored through the Centre. Coaches regularly participating in and assisting with the Centre and its programs will be eligible for other support.
